

02

THE RAIN

Deepanshu Sharma

Associate Analyst

Mahavir Enclave,

Palam, New Delhi, India

*****

THE RAIN

Rain spreads the sense of tranquillity.
It arrives without notice.
Rain has its own versatility,
And sometimes it returns without justice.

Causes umpteen conundrums,
Though it proves the adequacy of water.

Downpour occurs with outright decorum.
Rain has the privilege to squatter.

Parched land invites the rain wholeheartedly.
The petrichor mesmerises unknowingly.

Rain bolsters the crops profoundly.
In return, crops silently obliged to rain glowingly.

Rain soothes our mind naturally.
It always succeeds in alluring our attention.

It ceases the land purposely.
Anyhow, rain symbolises affection.

Sometimes, rain takes place in insinuation,
And it proves to be deleterious.

Rain clogged the regions which leads to ruination.
And it seems to be imperious.

Rain just sets the unerring vibes.
The pulchritudinous of rain can't be described.

This is an Open Access e-Journal Published Under A Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License

To Cite the Article: Sharma, Deepanshu, “The Rain”. Literary Cognizance, II-3 (December, 2021): 60-61. Web.

