THE CYROGENIC COAL

Jyoti Muglikar Patil
Pune, Maharashtra, India

A rueful spy of mirror Dallying through the fugitive cold silk with catacomb collars bunkered within parrying through the ossified prayers

The rimes of crystal voice camping on the chest of smoke leaking into the frozen snores of night the unctuous saddles of fresh light.

A reef of epiphany opaquely barbed over the musk of interrupted gaze a stifled echo biting through its cells to chorus the claws of a chilled solitude.

Soaked in the sacerdotal season the sharp touch lepers through its dark shadows licking the prose of the deaf breeze's mileless woe.
