LIFE

Dr. Sunil Sharma

Poet, Author, Critic & Editor

Toronto, Canada

==========

A series of days and nights spent predictably, ordinarily wearing clothes alternatively and same conversations over coffee, phones and newspapers the same smileys and icons being exchanged during long days and insomniac nights

with barking dogs
as company
on streets twisted
illogical

...and the birth of a poem!
Feeling high
the sensation
uplifting
sublime!

Inhabiting dual realities
---you and I
on a degraded planet
with regular tsunamis
droughts, hurricanes
rise in temperatures
and forest fires:
a global nightmare
created by the nations often debated in Davos or Beijing dismissed cynically or accepted by the elites, least affected and upheavals

a frightening routine for us the mere mortals!
