THIS YEAR

==========

This summer has not been kind.
Nor was the winter.
Or, the monsoon.
Every year.
To the birds, strays and poor
In the urban centers.
Although the rich are also seen coughing and ill.

Winter in summer
summer in winter
drought in monsoon monsoon in drought
floods
famine.
They are puzzled:
What has happened to nature?
The peasant queries the town dwellers:
Well, what have you done to nature?
