NECTAR

Soumen Roy

Kolkata, WB, India

There where the sun falls with golden aura
Rejuvenating the flora and fauna
Where the darkness is gone
Giggling mercy, a glorious dawn.
The divine smiled allover
Blossoming flowers with the sweetest nectar
Green go green
Gleaming into the peaceful serene
Seems the entire universe is singing, melodies lovelorn
Resonating all over in the air,
No worries and pains of bygone.
Smiles the azurine
Gentle touch of affection with golden hues
Sailing across the blues in the hearts of green
A beautiful painting with colors divine Where love meets life in the golden palanquin and the mind is without fear where the dreams build nest in the wings of fireflies Harvesting crops of love merrily dancing in the rhythm of spring
Yawning new hopes in the lap of shine
Moves ahead the monk of peace, chanting sublime .
