SHE

Santoshi Baiga

Umaria, Madhya Pradesh India

==========

Millions of time she was looked down
But it never brought any kind of frown
On her face, for she was quite humble
She was an angel, helping the ones who stumble.

Millions of time she was pushed back
She's not a man and that's what she lack
She was vulnerable, she could be attacked
That's why it's essential for her to be tracked.

Her respect was like playing balls
Ignoring her pleads and calls
They'd play catch and throw
But there's something they don't know.

What is a girl, what is a woman?

Beyond your imagination, a creator disguised as a human
Far from being vulnerable even when she's full of bruises

“Conceal and heal” that's the weapon she uses.
