O' life is a precious gift full with miracles
Blooming with ecstasy upon the hive of wonder
Where there is no worries
Smile sails its boat full with glories.

Do you remember those days of doom and gloom ?
When the world has abandoned you as if you were no where
When the day seemed dark and the nights were weary
You woke up because you matter!
Matter to the omnipotent who is your creator
And you started walking all alone
With hopes and fear
And you stood up tall like a conqueror
That hope is miracle
A miracle the universe has kindled with glorious fire
The fire has inspired so many
And you became a motivator
You smiled in between so many hearts
They also smiled back to you
No matter what others have said you
They might have an opinion
Its happens sometimes, you didn't matter
And they doesn't matter to you anymore
Yes that is a miracle and so you are!

O' look at the king
The return of a warrior
Loveladen face with so much of grace and gratitude
Always forgiving and kind to everyone
Yes that is miracle, you never gave up
When you learn to recognize challenges as an opportunity
That is a miracle
