==========

Dear girls, desiring for pretty appearance?
Taking measures to enhance your charms?

Fine, good-looks gives kind of confidence!
But some complications from it may arise!

There is a myth like beauty has no brain!
Hence you may be assessed as moron!

Beauty is a quality that attracts attention!
Caution is vital to shun immoral intention!

Self-guarding may be labelled as haughty!
Nasty remarks might arise out of hostility!

Albeit your achievement is result of sweat,
mean minds regard it as beauty's benefit!

Thus amid arduous efforts to look gorgeous,
build up fortitude to handle such hassles!!!
