O Man,

Extol not woman as goddess, use not strategy to suppress

Praise is also a kind of fetters, forcing to imbibe holy features

Expect not godlike qualities, allow her to have human flaws

Frailties are not her failure, accept them as human error

Frame not for her exclusive morals, fix her not in guilty conscience

Define her not with two extremes, let her live between virtue and vice

She is neither divine nor demon, just like man, woman is human.
