Fire and Friction is inseparable touchstone,
Though history has changed to make a new history.
Every minute and second history is making,
Evergreen Kalyani IIIT is awakening in the valley of knowledge streaming.

Sporting on the scorching sands of desert,
The footprints are coiling like a serpent.
Only a juggler knows the trick,
It is not easy to make an epic.

Without friction not fire can catch,
Science and history with a big trunk of tranquility
get a feeling of who you are!
This IIIT Kalyani is your dream comes real in future.

Lend your ears to listen the wind,
Howling and roaring on your way.
Beat the time, when mocking the environment
Keep your patience like the pitch drop experiment.

Bright colorful pastels laid before you, Why should wait?
Colours your dreams; forget the past.
Blank slate of your mind keeps whispering.
Call on great stories inspiring.

Santanu sir, Kaoushik sir , Madhumita Madam and all the gems,
By dew drop sparks fill your thirst.
Their knowledge, skills and wisdom make you wonder,
All the blooming stars shining yonder.

Sip the nectar in IIIT KALYANI, Nadia,
Poured the panoramic bless of science and technology,
Muses of eternal fountain, sing a song of perfection,
Keep it sing in your heart and mental diction.
