SUBTLE

Md. Nuruddin Pier Shihab
Lecturer, Department of English, R. P. Shaha University, Bangladesh

What happens when none of us is wrong?
Attuned, yet it doesn't sound like a song!
Everything is fine, but the heart stops healing.
Words still rhyme, but they lose their feeling.

Life seems shorter, though moments are long...
Thousands of moments of infinite pain
Draw nothing, yet leave a permanent stain.
Blessings turn subtle, and curses grow strong.

What happens when both of us are wrong?
Dispersed pieces still sound like a song!!
